

Thank you to everyone who observed during the six rounds of the series. We had an impressive turnout over the 6 rounds, with 22 observers in total. Congratulations to Andrew Walters, who won the £100 draw, Gary Rushton, who took home the Bluetooth speaker, and Darren Mitchell, who won the Jitsue Paddock coat. On behalf of the Club and all the competitors, we sincerely appreciate your time and support. Thank you!

The two pairs of sunglasses donated by Planit Opticians were presented to Robert Ainley and Chris Mitchell by Philip Howlet Jamie Waddington won the riding kit generously provided by Alfie Lampkin. The draw for the tyre went to Jamie Burrill, and the two eye tests were won by P. Hollingworth and James Alexander. There was also a Blue tooth speaker which was won by William Bradley A special thank you to Alan Mudd and Tony Holmes, two of our course plotters, for donating the tyres awarded at each round. The Club photographer presented the 3 course markers framed action shots of them with their feet up

The Club would like to extend our gratitude to all the riders who supported the series the Club members who took up the challenge to run the series, Philip Howlet for sponsoring the series , Alan Mudd and Tony Holmes for supplying the Tyres at each round.

We warmly invite you to join us again in 2025. Next Trial 7/9/24 at Redmire Farm Buckden. Details on website and social media
